LBBA 2015 Autumn Solo Contest

The halls of Groby Community College in Leicestershire were once again filled again with the sound of brass in support of this year's Leicestershire Brass Band Association's annual member Solo, Duet and Quartet competition held on Sunday 27th September 2015. Adjudicators Gary Wyatt, Graham Sutton and Stephen Cooper shared out the judging of the fourteen sections to consider the prize winners, and between them the overall Junior Champion of 2015.

This year Shirland Welfare Training scooped the biggest haul of silverware, amongst them Junior Champion and BBb Bass player Jack Newborough. Titles were also retained by Ratby Co-operative in the Open Duet and Quartets, whilst the Flugel playing of Rebecca Stonehouse won out in the Open Slow Melody. Not to be outdone, Steve Barham from Leicestershire Co-operative reclaimed the Open Air Varie champion title.

As is custom at the Autumn contest each of the participants in the youngest section of the day, 10 years and under, who were competing in their first contest also received a medal from adjudicator Graham Sutton who described to the hall that he truly enjoyed each and every one of the 20 performances in the youngest section of the day.

The association would like to congratulate each of the prize winners and particular Jack Newboroguh who wins the Harry Bray memorial trophy.
